TWO ELEPHANTS ESCAPE FROM SHOW AND RUN A MUCK

By Associated Press.
GR 'ELEY, Colo., June 30.—An-er at being separated from two elephants for which they have great affection, two big elephants belonging to the Sells-Floto circus this morning charged wildly down main street in pursuit of a motor wagon. The driver of the wagon, after a mad gallop, which scattered bread and pies for miles escaped. The elephants, which were chained together, then crossed through a fence in to the front yard of a residence, and were on the lawn and shrubbery. They were stopped by a stout maple tree on either side of which they attempted to pass. During the excitement a horse dropped dead from fright.

FAMILY TRAGEDY LOWER TONOPAH

Each Declares That He is in Perfect Trim for the Contest
---Big Arena Will be Completed Tonight.

TOM SHARKEY WILL CHALLENGE WINNER
By Associated Press.
LARAMIE, Wyo., June 30.—Tom Sharkey, who passed through here today on his way to Reno, announced he would challenge the winner of the big fight. Sharkey stipulated the battle should be for a purse of $25,000.

VICTIM OF FIREWORKS.
By Associated Press.
READING, Pa., June 30.—The first fatality caused by fireworks here was recorded yesterday when Minnie, the 7-year-old daughter of William Fox was burned to death.
The child was playing with the ordinary shooting cracker, when the sparks ignited her dress and in a few minutes she was ablaze from head to feet. She died several hours later in a hospital.

Betting in Reno is Light Although Two Wagers are Made by Members of Black Champion's Camp.

By Associated Press.
RENO, Nev., June 30.—"I'm ready. My training is finished. with the exception of a sprint now and then to keep myself in shape, I'll do no more work."
This was the declaration of Jeffries, made this afternoon.
While Jeffries lolled away the hours with a trout rod or cards, Johnson worked faithfully and the story of his labors can be told without words. Under the eye of a moving picture camera, he toiled through the day with gymnasium stunts, at boxing and posing. The only event of the day to mar the happiness was a clash with Joe Woodman. Johnson's conduct in that matter was dubbed "Chesterfieldian" by those who saw it, and by his restrained manner and courteous demeanor toward the man he deemed an enemy the champion won new friends.
A crowd of curious gathered in the morning to watch his workout.
But after a road jaunt Johnson encountered Woodman on the return, and asked Langford's manager to leave the camp grounds.
When Woodman left, Johnson seemed to change his mind and did not go on the canvas floor until nearly 4 o'clock this afternoon.
Sullivan was among the spectators. He was persuaded to hammer away at the bag for a few minutes. The old time champion is not in training and he puffed and blew after a moment's work in a way that made him quickly desist.
Johnson's workout consisted of medicine ball tossing, bag punc-ing and eight rounds of boxing, four with Kaufman and four with Cotton. After he finished his work Johnson announced that he was through and that he would take it easy until the day of the battle. Governor Dickerson was again a visitor at Johnson's camp today.
He seemed fascinated by the cleverness of the negro.
Tomorrow Berger will make a trip to the arena and thoroughly examine it. Sam will also endeavor to arrange with Tom Flanagan for a coin tossing contest with himself on Sunday. On the calling of the coin will hang the choice of corners. Though the fight is but three days off local betting is light. Two big bets were placed by members of the Johnson camp today. One was $1,500 to $2,000 Johnson to win, and the other $500 at even money Jeffries would not put the quietus on the champion in eighteen rounds.
Rickard announced today that no child under ten would be allowed to enter the arena for the Jeffries-Johnson contest. No child between ten and fifteen will be allowed to witness the battle, unless he or she was accompanied through the turnstiles by a chaperone of mature age and discretion. According to the contractors the last seat w: be placed and the last nail driven in the arena before the sun sets tomorrow. It is said there will be no $5 seats as was first intended.
The lowest price at which the topmost rear seats can be secured will be $10.

RINGSIDE REPORTS RECEIVED BY BONANZA MONDAY AFTERNOON

Fight by Rounds Will be Announced From Front Veranda of This Office as the Battle at Reno Progresses.

The progress of the "battle of the century" at Reno Monday afternoon will be announced from the veranda in front of the Bonanza office as the fight progresses. This will be the only report received in Tonopah, as both the Western Union and the Postal Telegraph companies have been notified that the returns by rounds would not be received in this city.
It is understood that Rickard demanded a percentage of the receipts of the two companies, which was refused.
Rather than see the fight followers in this city suffer for want of information of the big battle, the Bonanza has made arrangements with the Associated Press to secure the news as it happens. As fast as the reports are received powerful luned announcers with megaphones will inform the waiting multitude of the blows exchanged, the feints, clinches, up-percuts, right arm jolts, solar plexus disturbers and all that sort of stuff.
As usual it is the Bonanza who will accommodate the people of Tonopah, for it is our aim to give the people the news, regardless of expense.
Remember the time—ONE-THIRTY O'CLOCK.
Remember the day—MONDAY AFTERNOON.
Remember the place—THE BONANZA OFFICE.

HOOPSKIRT INVENTOR DIES IN HOBOKEN

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 30.—Joseph Thomas, 83 years old, an inventor, who, among other things, is credited with originating the hoopskirt, which was popular from 1850 to 1870, is dying at his home in Hoboken of disabilities incident to old age. He has been ill for several months.

Thomas' inventions, which included many improvements on the sewing machine, devices for the manufacture of sulphur matches, and a contrivance to make derby hats brought him a comfortable fortune. He made $50,000 from the hoop-skirt idea.

SHE HAS NO USE FOR ANY MOLLYCODDLES

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 30.—Mrs. John P. Henderson of Passaic, N. J., does not believe in rearing mollycoddles.
She wants men in her family who do not faint when they see a bit of blood spattered about.
Mrs. Henderson came to Chicago Sunday night on her way to Reno, bringing Eddie Henderson, her son, 15 years of age, with her.
After Mrs. Henderson had registered at a downtown hotel she confided to the night clerk:
"See," she said, displaying three $50 tickets to the ringside, "I'm going to take Eddie to that fight.
I don't believe in bringing up mol-lycoddles. At Denver my sister will join me and we will take the boy."

Roosevelt and Taft Meet After a Long Separation

By Associated Press.
BEVERLY, Mass., June 30.—
For a full minute this afternoon Taft and Roosevelt stood on the broad veranda of the Evans' cottage with hands upon each others' shoulders while delight shone in every line of their smiles that enwreathed their countenances.
"Mr. President," and it was Roosevelt who spoke, and there was earnest warmth in the salutation.
"Theodore."
They patted each other affectionately on the shoulder. "It used to be Mr. President and Will, didn't it?" the colonel cried in that old familiar high pitched voice, "but now its Mr. President and Theodore."

ROOSEVELT BEAT WHEN PRIMARY BILL IS DEFEATED

By Associated Press.
ALBANY, N. Y., June 30.— Roosevelt was beaten decisively today. Whatever may be the final outcome of his first adventure in politics since his retirement from the white house, he met with an absolute defeat at the hands of the republican organization in the assembly. The Cobb direct nomination bill was killed in the assembly today after a long hard fight. The final count stood 80 to 63 in favor of accepting the adverse report on the bill. Republican senators voted to make a party measure out of the Cobb bill, with the amendments proposed by Lloyd Griscom, chairman of the New York county republican committee and favored by Roosevelt.

The two friends were meeting after sixteen months of separation with all the warmth that used to characterize their association in Washington, and they slapped each other again on the arms and shoulders. The meeting was everything the friends of the president claimed it would be and the persistent prophecies of those who have insisted that a coolness had developed between the two men was proved false.
After spending two hours and twenty minutes with the president, Roosevelt started back to Nahant to spend the second night with Senator Lodge. Other than to say he had a most delightful time the colonel refused to talk.

SHOOTS WIFE THEN SUICIDES IN HOTEL GRILL

By Associated Press.
PORTLAND, Ore., June 30.—S.
T. Bolen tonight pursued his divorced wife, Edna Adams into the grill of a hotel in Portland where he shot and wounded her slightly in the cheek. Bolen then fired two bullets into his own head and died instantly. Bolen was a lineman in the employ of the telegraph department of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company. He and his wife were divorced about a month ago and according to the woman he had since made threats to kill her.

FOUR KILLED BY FIRING RIFLE INTO DANAMITE

By Associated Press.
BUTTE, Mont., June 30.—A special from Boulder says George Hart fired his rifle against a building in which a quantity of dynamite was stored. A terrific explosion occurred. Hart and his wife were killed and their baby injured, and two men named Robinson and Kerby killed.

"SCOTTY" AGAIN IN THE MONEY

"Death Valley Scotty" is to the good again and will attend the big fight at Reno on July 4. He is now a full fledged resident of Humboldt county and his mine in the Humboldt range is putting him on his feet again and from present indications he will soon be his old self and the king of money spenders.
"Scotty" came down from his property in the mountains the other day and made a flying visit to the town of Imlay, and while there showed the boys how to do the town right. While "Scotty" was doing business with real money and flashed a big roll of greenbacks he was there with the yellow metal too. Not the kind that is stamped with the eagle, but the clean pure stuff that mother earth gives up to her favored few.
Shortly before taking the train for the west "Scotty" said to the boys, "I am going to the big fight all right." At that he pulled a large bottle of gold nuggets from his pocket just to show the boys that he was there with the ma-zuma.
"Scotty" has been working on a prospect near the Indian Ike property at the head of Black Canyon, in the Humboldt mountains, and it is believed he has uncovered one of the bonanza pockets for which that section is noted. However, "Scotty" still retains his mysterious attitude and it can only be guessed where he gets his wealth, and the only fact known is that he has got it and knows how to spend it.—
